We Share! We Can!

Dear all,

The impact of the Covid-19 outbreak on the Hong Kong economy is unprecedented, in particular on rising unemployment and the much reduced economic activities in the last few months. The sudden loss of jobs and underemployment have affected many low income families who are now facing tremendous hardship and financial difficulties during this period. Students' learning and study have also been affected.

To help these students and families, the Lok Sin Tong Benevolent Society has joined hands with Project WeCan and Faculty of Social Science, HKU to launch the "We Share! We Can!" project. The aim of the project is to appeal to individuals to donate in full or partial, their entitlement of $10,000 cash received by Government to support the affected families. Through this sharing, we hope to build a caring and harmonious community.

The project shall be started on 10 May 2020 (Sunday), we hope to identify these students and families through schools, with recommendations by Principals and teachers. All schools under Lok Sin Tong and Project WeCan would be eligible to apply. Students being recommended will be given a one-off subsidy for their family. HKU will also help to conduct a study to how altruistic behavior benefit the donor and beneficiary in order to build up a caring society.

Lok Sin Tong will undertake all administrative costs of the project to ensure that every dollar will go to families in need. We would like to count on your kind support to help those who suffered during this unprecedented time. Attached is a donation form for your completion. Any amount, big or small, will be very much appreciated!
